

Dallas' Southwest Securities Hit with $5.45 Million Fraud Verdict

Reese Gordon Marketos lawyers prevail for Gerritsen Beach, Riviera Investments

DALLAS – A Dallas County jury has returned an actual damages verdict totaling more than $5.45 million in favor of local investment firms Gerritsen Beach Investments Ltd. and SSST Riviera Investments Ltd. after finding that Dallas-based Southwest Securities Inc. conspired to defraud investors and lenders out of millions of dollars between 2005 and 2010.

On Nov. 11, jurors in Judge Bonnie Lee Goldstein's 44th Judicial District Court found that real estate developer Stephen Jemal conspired with Southwest to defraud the two Texas partnerships by misrepresenting the value of his Southwest holdings. The verdict also allows the plaintiffs to seek millions in attorneys' fees, prejudgment interest, and costs.

"Mr. Jemal's scheme relied on fake brokerage account statements that purported to show he owned tens of millions of dollars in blue chip stocks at Southwest," says attorney Joel Reese of Dallas-based Reese Gordon Marketos LLP, who, along with partner Adam Sanderson, represented Gerritsen Beach and Riviera. "Lenders and investors, like our clients, relied on those fake statements, which were all tied to real accounts at Southwest."

Trial evidence showed that Southwest provided easily altered brokerage statements that Mr. Jemal then used to deceive lenders and investors. Witnesses testified that Southwest assisted in the deception by lying about the value of the accounts.

"After five years of hard-fought litigation, our clients are pleased to finally receive justice," says Mr. Reese. "Considering all the witness testimony and the incriminating documents, Southwest should have expected this result."

Southwest recently was acquired by Dallas' Hilltop Holdings Inc. and renamed as Hilltop Securities. The case is Gerritsen Beach Investments Ltd., et al. v. Southwest Securities Inc., et al., No. 10-10673.

The attorneys at Reese Gordon Marketos LLP consider the practice of law to be their calling. They use their nimble thinking and big-firm pedigree in their mission to prevail in every complex commercial litigation case they accept. They employ state-of-the-art technology, courtroom poise and outstanding tactics to earn favorable outcomes in a wide variety of business disputes. To learn more, visit <http://www.rgmfirm.com/>.

For more information, please contact Rhonda Reddick at 800-559-4534 or rhonda@androvett.com.